

SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY.

OFFICE OF General Master Mechanic.

Sacramento, Aug. 30th 1887.

James Ray, Esq.,

Foreman, Sumner.

Dear Sir;- Commencing with the first day of September you will have charge of the engine house and locomotive affairs at Sumner; you will report directly to me and make your requisitions for supplies directly upon me. You will have full control of the engineers and firemen and all others while the engines are detached from their trains at Sumner. Please confer with the trainmaster and agent there upon all subjects in regard to furnishing power; see that they are furnished promptly with what they require.

Yours truly,

Gen. M. M.
