A. Brown Esq

Dear Sir

Mrs Montague desires me to send her compliments to you, and hopes that you will make it convenient to dine with us on Saturday next (the 13th inst) that being the first anniversary of our first dinner together in San Francisco.

Let me add on my own account that I hope you have not forgotten another little incident that transpired about that time, and that you will "strain a point" if necessary to join us on Saturday next.

Very truly yours

Sam. S. Montague
