1. Music—"Railroad Galop"—Willis Band.
2. Invocation—Rev. J. A. Benton.

3. An Original Ode—By L. E. Crane—Sung to "America."

Through toil-built mountain gates,
We come, O, Sister States!
With hymns of praise;
Where white Sierras rise,
Where green plains face the skies,
We grasp the victor's prize,
To crown our days!

The wild, grand march is done!
The guarded ways are won
From sea to sea!
We see His mighty hand
Now clasp this iron band,
To grace our matchless land,
Where all is free!

Glad be the song we sing!
Columbia's harp we string
With iron chords;
Swift shall grand music sweep
Round thrones beyond the deep,
Till tyrants kneel and weep,
Or grasp their swords!

Our Nation, pure and free,
Gives thanks, O God, to Thee,
For wisdom taught!
No grim war-harness Mars,
Not one slave-fetter scars
These iron music-bars
Her sons have wrought!

[The audience is requested to join in singing.]
