

A splendid herd of Dutch belted cattle feeding in a field of California alfalfa. Most of the alfalfa in this State is used for dairying purposes and when used in conjunction with some concentrated carbonaceous feed, makes an exceptionally good fodder. In the circle is the world's champion cow, whose record is shown on the other side of this leaf.